M-Cn ³²Oakview Apartments. Chan-Ho speaking.

W-Am Good morning. I'm a resident here, and ³³I lost my key. It must have fallen off my key chain. I'll need a new one.

M-Cn I'm sorry to hear that. I have an extra key here in the management office. I'll send one of the maintenance workers over with it.

W-Am Thank you so much. I really appreciate it.

M-Cn No problem. ³⁴Can you tell me which unit is yours?

35-37

W-Am ³⁵Here's your admission ticket. It includes access to our seventeenth-century pottery exhibit—it just opened this weekend.

M-Au Thanks, I came here specifically to see that. ³⁶I'm writing a book about European pottery, and there's a vase I want to take a closer look at.

W-Am Then ³⁷you might also be interested in today's special lecture. We have an archaeologist here to talk about how pottery is dated. ³⁷You'll have to hurry though. It starts in just a few minutes.

W-Br Hey, Pierre. ³⁸This is Chris Suzuki. He's our new apprentice.

M-Cn Nice to meet you, Chris. So you're training to become a welder?

M-Au Actually, a machinist. I'll spend part of my apprenticeship studying welding, and I'll also learn to read blueprints and operate machinery.

M-Cn Well, ³⁹you came to the right place. There're plenty of experienced workers and opportunities for hands-on practice in this factory.

M-Au I'm excited to get started.

W-Br Well, ⁴⁰we'll let you get back to work. I want Chris to meet a few more people before the shift ends.

41-43

M-Cn Hi, Marisol. ⁴¹I got the invitation from Sunita about your party on Friday. I can't believe this is your last week here. You've had quite a career.

W-Am Thank you. It's been great.

M-Cn I'll definitely be at the party. ⁴²What's your favorite dessert?

W-Am Oh, ⁴²I love cheesecake.

M-Cn OK, ⁴²I have the perfect recipe. Well, this is exciting. So, what's next for you?

W-Am ⁴³I'm going overseas to Europe for a couple of weeks. I can't wait.

M-Cn Sounds amazing.

44-46

M-Au Excuse me. I'm looking at these floor mats. My office chair scratches my hardwood floor, so I need something to protect it. ⁴⁴I bought a mat somewhere else, but it had a strong plastic smell.

W-Am That shouldn't be a problem with our floor mats. ⁴⁵You're welcome to take one out of the box to see for yourself.

M-Au Thanks. Is there a chair I can try it with? I want to make sure the wheels won't sink into it.

W-Am Sure. ⁴⁶These mats have a patented easy-glide surface, meaning they're firm enough to let you freely maneuver around your work space in a rolling chair. It's something the manufacturer's particularly proud of.

W-Am Abdullah, ⁴⁷have you edited the film footage for that frozen food commercial yet?

M-Cn ⁴⁷The video and music are done, but I'm still working on the dubbing to add the actors' voices in.

M-Cn Well, we just switched to a new software program.

W-Am Hmm... OK. I'll ask the client if they'd be willing to move the deadline for us. By the way, ⁴⁹congratulations. I heard that you recently won a best effects award in an industry competition.

M-Cn Oh, thanks. Yes, I worked hard on the entry I submitted, so I was happy to be selected.

M-Au Hello. Welcome to New York Ferry Service. ⁵⁰How can I help you two?

W-Br Hi. ⁵⁰We're trying to catch the next ferry to the city.

W-Am ⁵⁰Yeah, how much are one-way commuter tickets?

M-Au OK. It's ten dollars per person. Have you heard of our new payment option?

W-Br No. What is it?

M-Au Well, ⁵¹we just introduced a payment system that allows you to pay for your tickets right from your smartphone. No cash is needed.

W-Am That sounds great.

M-Au It definitely is! ⁵²I suggest you both download our app so you can use this method in the future.

53-55

W-Br Hans Jones Jewelry? Hmm, ⁵³I don't remember seeing your booth at this trade show before. Can you tell me about your company?

M-Cn Sure. We're a relatively new company, and we're just starting to visit trade shows. ⁵⁴We specialize in creating affordable jewelry made with high-quality materials.

W-Br Your necklaces are beautiful. I'd love to sell them at my fashion boutiques. Do you make any earrings or bracelets?

M-Cn Yes, I just didn't have room to display them here. But ⁵⁵take one of our catalogs. It has pictures of our entire collection.

W-Br Hi, Carlos. ⁵⁶I have a question about the news story you're working on—the one about the local bus system. ⁵⁸Did you get a quote from someone at the transit agency?

M-Au ⁵⁸No, I haven't been able to contact anyone there yet. And ^{56,57}our deadline to get this story on tonight's news is five P.M. ⁵⁸I'm concerned we'll miss it if they don't respond soon.

W-Br Well, I just heard they're hosting a big press conference at noon.

M-Au What a great idea—I'll leave now.

M-Au Tomoko, ⁵⁹our sales of fresh flowers have always been strong, but to increase business, I think we should try to sell more indoor potted plants. I'm sure we could find customers in local office buildings.

W-Br Not just offices. People working from home would be interested, too. ⁶⁰Why don't we start promoting the idea by featuring some plants on our Web site?

M-Au ⁶⁰OK, let's do that. ⁶¹I know a photographer who specializes in product pictures. I'll get in touch and see when she's available.

M-Cn Hello, this is the Vega Event Center. How can I help you?

W-Br Hi. ⁶²I work for Thomson Manufacturing Company, and we're planning a charity auction.

M-Cn Great, we've definitely hosted those before. How many guests do you anticipate?

W-Br Well, ⁶³we want to invite 250 guests. Do you have an event space that would accommodate us?

M-Cn Oh, yes. ⁶³One of our banquet rooms fits between 200 and 300 people.

W-Br Excellent. ⁶⁴We'd also like to have a musical act perform during the auction. Can you recommend some bands?

M-Cn Absolutely. ⁶⁴I'll send you a list of groups that we regularly hire.

Vega Event Center
Arroyo Room	100–200 people
Salinas Room	⁶³ 200–300 people
Reyes Room	300–400 people
Miramar Room	400–500 people

W-Br ⁶⁵Joining me for tonight's news broadcast is aviation expert Dmitry Petrov.

M-Au Thanks for having me.

W-Br Airports around the country are seeing more and more flight delays. What might be causing this trend?

M-Au Air travel has been steadily increasing. More travelers and flights cause airport congestion—and delays.

W-Br Is this trend consistent across airports?

M-Au Actually, no. ⁶⁶Look at this graph. Some see average delays of around twenty minutes, but some like this airport here, can be over forty.

W-Br What would you tell travelers to do?

M-Au ⁶⁷If possible, try changing your plans to avoid cities known for delays, and if you can, shift your travel to off-peak times.

Flight Delays by Airport, in Minutes

M-Cn Helen, ⁶⁸remember we discussed doing something special for our bakery's anniversary next month?

W-Am Yes, we talked about having a souvenir item with our logo on it.

M-Cn Right. ⁶⁹Here are four options I came up with.

W-Am Let's see... ⁶⁹I think the short-sleeved shirt with our business logo on the front will have the widest appeal, since it'll be hot in the summer. It will really help advertise our store too.

M-Cn ⁶⁹OK. ⁷⁰I'll go ahead and order those now.

M-Cn Welcome to Soo-Min's Factory. I'm delighted to give you a tour of our facility. Today, ⁷⁴you'll see how we manufacture some of the world's favorite candies. Unlike many candy factories, ⁷⁵we still make our products by hand, just like we've been doing since the factory opened over 50 years ago. It's what we're known for. Now before we go in, ⁷⁶you'll need to leave your belongings in the lockers behind me. We need to maintain a clean environment inside the factory, so it's very important that you don't take anything in with you.

W-Br ⁷⁷First on the staff meeting agenda is the new time-tracking software we're implementing. All employees will start using it to record their hours beginning next month. Because it's very different from our previous software, everyone will receive access to an online training session. ⁷⁸Note that you'll use the same log-on name and password as you used on the old system. OK, next. ⁷⁹Remember that a photographer will be here tomorrow to take pictures for the company Web site. Please wear professional attire.

M-Au Welcome back to Artist Hour on Freetown Public Radio. ⁸⁰With me here in the studio is Carol Thompson, the longtime director of the Freetown Art Museum. Ms. Thompson has just announced that she'll be retiring at the end of the year, so she joins us today to talk about her career and future plans. As we'll discuss later, ⁸¹she has always had a particular talent for fund-raising. Over her 30-year career, she has raised a total of five million dollars for art restoration projects across the country. ⁸²Ms. Thompson plans to write children's books about well-known artists when she retires. The first will be based on the life of French painter Claude Monet.

W-Am OK, everyone. ⁸³I want to talk about your new writing assignments. As you know, the special restaurant issue of our magazine is coming out in May. But we still have quite a few restaurants we haven't reviewed yet. So, ⁸⁴I've assigned a different restaurant to each reporter—you can check your e-mail to find out which one you'll be reviewing. ⁸⁵This might seem like a fun assignment, but remember, thousands of people will buy this issue.

W-Br ⁸⁶Welcome, everyone, to the Pine City Community Center. I'm Dr. Garcia, and I'm here at the community center today for the annual wellness fair. ⁸⁷We'll be doing free vision exams all day. If you don't have time today, we'll be offering the exams at our clinic for the rest of the month. Just remember, many eye problems are easily treated. OK, so ⁸⁸first on our agenda at nine o'clock A.M., eye specialist Dr. Yan Zhou will give a presentation in the auditorium about maintaining good eye health. Let's head over there now.

M-Cn Hi, I'm Takumi from Logan's Flooring. Thanks for watching this video. ⁸⁹Carpets come in various designs and materials, and selecting one can be overwhelming. Today, I'll be sharing a few tips that'll make that process easier. First, consider where you're going to put the carpet. For example, ⁹⁰if you're carpeting a children's playroom, you probably don't want to select a wool carpet, since they're difficult to clean. Second, we recommend making sure your carpet is protected under our warranty in case of damage. ⁹¹At Logan's Flooring, we provide one-year warranties on all our carpets! Be sure to subscribe to this video channel for free weekly tips and ideas.

W-Br Hi. This is Barbara Chen, head of public relations at Springfield Solutions. ⁹²I'm calling to thank you for your magazine article about our company. In it, you praised our newest software, Ubex, writing that it helps factories run more efficiently. But ⁹³you also emphasized how expensive the software is. While Ubex is costly, let me point out that this is just one of our many products. ⁹⁴I'd appreciate the chance to discuss the full range of our software choices, to give you a balanced view of the company. Please call me back and let me know if you'd be available to meet.

W-Am Welcome to the grand opening of Oakfield Public Park! ⁹⁵My fellow city council members and I are glad that everyone could join us. There are many fun activities for residents to enjoy here. See the beautiful Elm Fountain, which has a special fountain show every hour. There are also several picnic areas throughout the park. But ⁹⁶I suggest the one between Dogwood Pond and the children's playground. It offers fantastic views of our city's skyline. Finally, ⁹⁷for any gardeners among us, the Oakfield Parks Department needs volunteers to help care for the community garden. If you're interested, please visit the city government Web site.

M-Cn ⁹⁸Since the hospital hired me, I've been working on making the meals we serve our patients more nutritious. But ⁹⁹I want to promote healthy eating habits among our staff as well, because health-care professionals with healthy diets are more likely to teach their patients to make similar choices. With that goal, I'd like to schedule our first nutrition class at a time that's available to as many people as possible, so I'm asking that you complete this short survey. ¹⁰⁰I do have some flexibility in the afternoons so I could move the afternoon session during the week to a later time if necessary. The weekend session cannot be moved.
